Has graciously bequeathed $25,000 to Glenaire

Norma Grace Sherman Nelson was born on September 1st, 1932, in Hastings, Michigan. Norma and her late husband, Bob, raised their son, Jim, and daughter, Sarah, in Lawrenceville Township, New Jersey. A busy working mother, Norma worked for American Cyanamid, served as head of the PTA, was Treasurer of her son's Little League, was diligent to ensure her daughter made all of her music lessons and when time allowed threw elaborate parties. As Norma's children grew into adults, she found time to enjoy her love of gardening, playing bridge and spending time baking and crafting with her only grandchild, Michelle.

Norma moved to Glenaire in 2008. In her early years, she maintained her devotion to the Presbyterian Church, was a member of several of Glenaire's committees, and spent time socializing with other residents. Norma was a fan of the performing arts, including the ballet and symphony, and utilized the transportation provided by Glenaire to attend performances.

Norma was a loyal donor to many of Glenaire's employee scholarships, made memorial gifts to support resident financial assistance frequently and was a member of the Glenaire Society. Norma's generous bequest of $25,000 was directed to The Micou Browne Endowment, which supports resident financial assistance. "Mrs. Nelson's gift is a tangible sign of her generous spirit," said Paul Gregg, Executive Director. "She leaves a legacy of caring that will help others who are in need."
