

River Landing at Sandy Ridge Receives Estate Gift from Hunter Dalton, Jr.

The Presbyterian Homes Foundation, Inc. has received a generous gift from the estate of Hunter Dalton, Jr. Through his planning, he named the Foundation as a beneficiary of an insurance policy valued at over $10,000. This gift will help those at River Landing at Sandy Ridge who have, by no fault of their own, outlived their personal financial resources and are in need of financial assistance.

Hunter was a native of High Point, NC and was born on December 13, 1924. He attended High Point High School (now High Point Central) and Davidson College. His education was interrupted by the call to serve in the US Navy during World War II. He later graduated from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a BS in Chemistry.

In 1947, he married Edna Elizabeth "Libby" Andrews of Statesville, NC and the couple enjoyed 52 years of marriage. Hunter's professional career with Snow Lumber Company and his service in the community made a lasting impact and helped shape the High Point community for future generations. Hunter served in leadership positions with numerous professional organizations and civic groups. The Presbyterian Home of High Point benefited from Hunter's service and expertise for over nine years as he served as Board President from 1988 – 1991.

As the great grandson of the Reverend Pleasant Hunter Dalton, founder of First Presbyterian Church of High Point and its pastor for over 25 years, Hunter served the church that he loved in numerous capacities throughout the years. In his later years, Hunter moved to The Presbyterian Home of High Point and then to the new campus, River Landing at Sandy Ridge, in 2003.

Hunter passed away on July 18, 2014 and is survived by his three children, Frances Marybeth Dalton Grein, Pleasant Hunter (Hunt) Dalton III, and Dr. David Andrews Dalton, six grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. Hunter's son, Hunt, currently serves on the Investment Committee for The Presbyterian Homes Foundation, Inc.

"Hunter Dalton was a generous supporter of The Presbyterian Home of High Point and River Landing for over twenty years. He could always be called on to support projects and expansion and was willing to give of his time and expertise," notes Tim Webster, President. "We are appreciative of his generosity and willingness to help provide for others."
